

Sample test items

Sample test items are located on pages _____.

The kinds of samples provided are?

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

The first sample item shows an example of a _____ item.

The item-specific scoring _____ explains how a student's response would be scored.

This rubric is based on the general scoring rubric on page _____.

With each sample item, information about the GLE is also provided.

Alignment

iLEAP is aligned with Standards, Benchmarks and

_____.
A GLE chart begins on page _____.

Key Concepts

Information about key concepts is located on page _____.

List important points in key concepts section:

MATH

Grade _____

Test Specifications

Strands	% of points
---------	-------------

NRT Component

The _____ comprises the NRT component of *i*LEAP.

The type of item is _____.

Details about the format of the NRT can be found in the table on page _____.

The parts of the NRT test are:

The total time for the NRT component is _____.

CRT Component

The math CRT has two types of test items:

1.

2.

The *i*LEAP math assessment
includes constructed-response items because

_____.

Students may use calculators on all parts of the test except:

_____.

General Scoring Rubric

4 The student's response demonstrates _____ understanding of the relevant content or procedures. The student completes _____ components of the task accurately and communicates ideas effectively.

3 The student completes _____ important aspects of the task accurately and communicates clearly. The response demonstrates an understanding of _____ concepts or processes, although _____ ideas or details may be overlooked or misunderstood. The student's logic and reasoning may contain _____ flaws.

2 The student completes _____ parts of the task successfully. The response demonstrates _____ in the conceptual understanding.

1 The student completes only _____ parts of the tasks and/or shows _____ understanding of the concepts or processes.

0 The student's response is

_____.